

hospitality towards himself and Cadets. The two corps then, after an exchange of the usual military honors, took an affectionate farewell of each other, and separated with three hearty cheers.

It being the time of vacation at the Oxford Academy, the Cadets of that institution left us on Saturday for their respective homes.

A CARD.

The Cadets of the Institutions of Fayetteville and Oxford tender their cordial thanks to the citizens of Raleigh, to the Governor and members of the General Assembly, individually, for the very flattering and generous attentions shown them during their recent visit to the capital of the State. Those, whose hospitality was so frankly offered, and so freely shared, are entitled to the richest tribute of grateful feeling. To those persons, also, whose doors were opened, and whose tables were spread, for their accommodation, on the excursion and return, the cadets take this method of expressing their grateful acknowledgments. As a body, they will ever hold those demonstrations of respect in honorable remembrance—as individuals, they will treasure them up amongst the most choice and cherished memories of the heart.

In behalf of the Cadets.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1831.

NORTH CAROLINA LITERARY AND MILITARY INSTITUTION.

Capt. BINGHAM respectfully informs the citizens of North Carolina, that the duties of the above institution will be resumed on Monday, the 10th of January next. The course of education at this institution, it is believed, is so well understood, that a particular exposition at this time is unnecessary. The experience and observations of the past year have suggested some improvements in the discipline of the institution, that will receive immediate attention upon its re-opening. In relation to the expenses of young gentlemen, I would observe that hereafter they must be under my immediate supervision; and that no
